

You are cordially invited to celebrate with us the release of my new book on CD, “Make Dynamic Paintings in Watercolor”. There will be an open studio and exhibition of recent paintings at my home studio overlooking Lake Champlain. Refreshments will be served through the afternoon.

Please join us with your guests between 1:00 and 4:00pm, Sunday afternoon, July 18, 2010.

Ann Pember

Ann Pember
Water Edge Studio
14 Water Edge Rd.
Keeseville, NY 12944

OPEN STUDIO

Ann Pember

WATER EDGE STUDIO ON LAKE CHAMPLAIN

14 WATER EDGE RD.
KEESEVILLE, NEW YORK

Ann has self published and produced her first book on CD; “Make Dynamic Paintings in Watercolor”. It can be read on a computer monitor using Adobe Reader and may also be printed out. It can be purchased from Ann at her studio or from her website, www.annpember.com. The paintings created for this book will be on display at Pember’s studio.

Pember’s work has been published in more than thirty books and magazines and her paintings have been selected for more than 165 juried national exhibitions. Her paintings have received over 40 awards and are included in many private and corporate collections.

For further information, call (518) 834-7440, or visit www.annpember.com

Water Edge Studio is easily reached from points north and south:

From interstate 87 take Exit 35 from the north to Bear Swamp Road; go east to Route 9 south. Just before Ausable Chasm, bear left on Route 373 toward Port Kent. Just past the golf course, take a right on Trembleau Road to Water Edge Road at the railroad tracks (2.2 mi.). Bear right there, almost to the turn around (.4 mi.), # 14. The house and studio are on the left by the lake.

From the south, take exit 34 east into Keeseville on Route 9N to Route 9 north. Just past Ausable Chasm, bear right on Route 373 and proceed as directed above.